

They were trained to swim, build bridges, set up camp and fight as a unit.

ROMAN SOLDIER

Roman legionaries were not allowed to get married.

Only men over the age of twenty could become a soldier and join one of the legions of the Roman Army.

Roman soldiers were famous for their discipline in battle. They always followed orders and knew that if an army of soldiers worked together they would often be successful. In battle, the Romans fought in lines and formations.

Roman soldiers were able to march more than twenty miles a day wearing full armour and carrying weapons and equipment.

Dagger

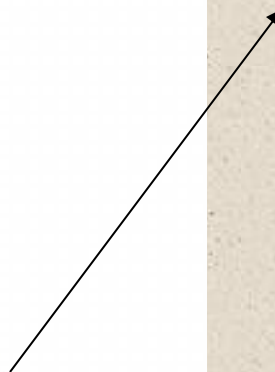

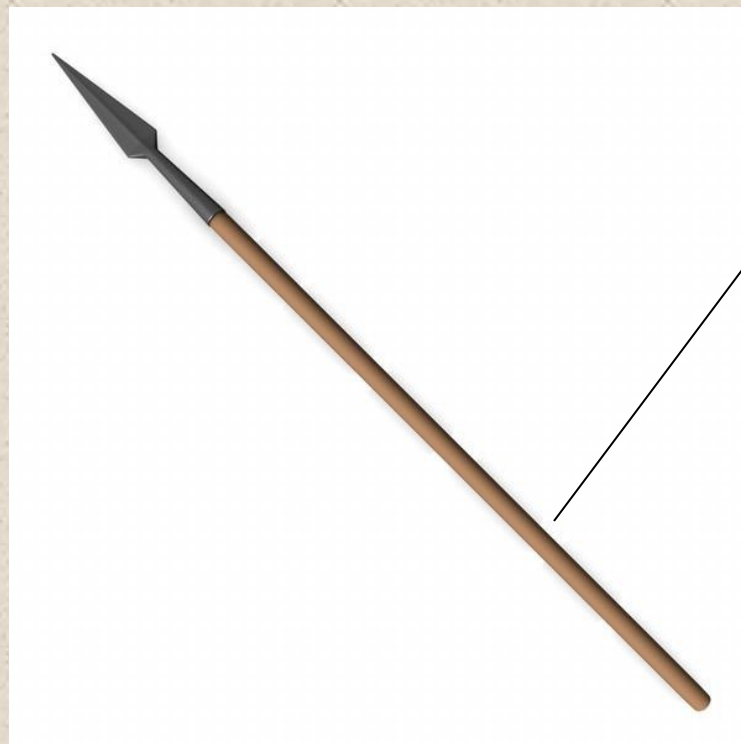

The dagger is used for short range. It's the smallest sword they used. It's kept in a coloured plastic case.

The Roman soldiers used a variety of weapons including a pugio (dagger), gladius (sword, see picture to the right), hasta (spear), javelin, and bows and arrows. The soldiers were trained to fight with their weapons and practiced on a regular basis. They would sometimes spar with each other using wooden swords.
