NEXT FRIDAY'S ASSEMBLY VEGETABLES NEEDED FOR THURSDAY MORNING!!

Next Thursday Reverend Diane is coming to school to celebrate harvest with the children. As we have done in the past few years, we would like children to bring in just one or two items of vegetables that we can use to make soup with (potatoes, carrots, onions leeks etc). During Thursday a group of parents and children will turn this into soup which we'll hopefully be able to taste on Friday morning after assembly. We hope you can help us with this!

STARS OF THE WEEK

Ollie Dryden
Riley Moore
Ethan Sales
Joe Goodfellow
Bethan Moore
Ross Barclay

Don't forget that the library is open to all children to borrow and return books after school on Mondays and Tuesdays. Come along and choose from our great range!

NORTLE ON IPADS

We've had a few parents mentioning recently that they have had problems accessing NORTLE. We've found that this is often due to the fact that it does not currently work well with iPads. We hope that a new version of NORTLE coming soon will solve this problem.

SOUP MAKERS STILL NEEDED!

We're still on the look out for more volunteers to help us make soup from about 10.30am on Thursday. Let us know in the office if you can help out.

NEW INTERNET RESOURCE CURRICULUM VISIONS

We have recently purchased access for all children to the Curriculum Visions website www.curriculumvisions.com

This site contains hundreds of child friendly textbooks, quests, video clips and clipart images. Using the password sent home with the children (most are in homework books or reading records) you will be able to access all of the resources on the site. This site can be used to help children extend their learning, complete homework tasks and projects or just give them access to a huge range of books to read. We hope you find this a useful resource and make good use of it!

We say goodbye to Mrs Martin next week. She's been a part of Amble Links First School for more than 20 years and will be remembered by many hundreds of parents and children. If you'd like to contribute towards a small gift for her please come along to the school office.
