

Egyptian Storyteller

The Starfish and Sealions welcomed an Egyptian storyteller to their classrooms this week. Dressed in full Egyptian costume she told the children a range of stories about the Ancient Egyptians in full, and sometimes gory, details. It was a joy to watch the children listening to the stories with huge smiles on their faces! We hope they've retold you the stories in lots of detail. Look out for a picture in the paper soon!

PTA EASTER EGGS DONATIONS

The PTA are asking for any donations of Easter Eggs or other Easter treats for their Easter Raffle which will be drawn on the last Friday assembly of this term. Last year's raffle was a huge success so please help us make it even bigger this year. Our PTA do a wonderful job to raise money for school so please help support them in any way you can.

School Uniform

Please try to ensure that the children come to school in school uniform each day. The children look so smart in their full uniforms of blue jumpers/cardigans, grey trousers/skirts and black shoes. Smart uniforms also help to present a good impression of our school in the local community.

SAFETY DAY

Our Safety Day on Friday 23rd March will involve dressing up again - this is early warning to start thinking about costumes involving anything linked to keeping safe! Helmets, goggles, armour, hi vis.... We're sure you'll have lots of great ideas!

PARENTS EVENING

Don't forget to sign up for a Parents' Evening slot with your child's class teacher. Parents' Evening runs from 3.30pm to 6.00pm. If you can't make Wednesday 7th March please speak to the teacher who will make other arrangements to meet with you.

World Book Day

We celebrated World Book Day today (a day late!) and were amazed to see so many different book characters arrive at school. Mr and Mrs Twit led our assembly in which the classes also performed an extract of a favourite book.

THANK YOU!

A huge 'Thank You' to Lisa Bell who has so kindly made new covers for our Star Worker Cushions. We can't believe that within a week of asking our new cushions are in use!
